

Our Children

INTRO

Vs            B            E            B            E
Our children. - - One day must grow big.
B            E                            B            E
They'll grow up knowing it all, more than we ever did.
B            E            B            E
Don't give 'em, - - any of your bad ideas.
B            E                            B            E
You know they can handle life, they don't need our old fears.

Ch            E                            B
You know the worlds ready.
E                            B
Yeah the worlds ready
E                            B
You know the worlds ready
                          F#
for a change.

Vs            When you see 'em, playing in the yard.
No observation of colour, nothing but love in their hearts.
Don't teach 'em, they don't want to learn.
They don't need to know hate, they got love to burn.

Ch

Vs            Generations, have passed away.
fighting for all those things, we still fight for today.
Our children, one day must grow big.
How about if they don't fight, For the stupid things we did.

Ch

INSTRUMENTAL    B            E            C#m    F#            (x4)
                          E            A            F#m    B            (x2)
                          B            E            C#m    F#            (x2)

Vs            Our children, one day must grow big.
Eventually ruling the world, better than we ever did.
Our children. One day must grow big.
They'll grow up knowing it all, more than we ever did.
Our children, one day must grow big.
How about if they don't fight, For the stupid things we did.
Our children, one day must grow big.
How about if they don't fight, For the stupid things we did.

Ch            You know the worlds ready.
Yeah the worlds ready
You know the worlds ready for a change.                            (x2)